O ma-dam I pre-sent you a fine coach and six, Four— black hors-es as black as an-y jet, If you will walk a - broad with me, If you will walk a - broad with me.

O madam I present you a fine coach and six,
Four black horses as black as any jet,
If you will walk abroad with me,
If you will walk abroad with me.

O I won't accept (your fine coach and six
Four black horses as black as any jet,
And I won't walk abroad with you,
And I won't walk abroad with you.)

O madam I present you a fine easy chair,
To set in the garden and take the morning air,
If you will walk...

O I won't...

O madam I present you a fine silken gown,
Four yards long all a-trailed on the ground,
If you will walk...

O I won't...

O madam I present you a fine gold watch,
To keep by your side to tell you what's the time,
If you will walk...

O I won't...

O madam I present you the key of my chest,
And all my gold jewels and jewels I possess,
If you will walk...

O I won't...

O madam I present you the key of my heart,
And married we will be and will never, never part,
If you will walk...

O I will accept (the key of your heart,
And married we will be and will never, never part,
And I will walk abroad with you,
And I will walk abroad with you.)
