 [left of the title:] Dorian 573 [right of the title:] Mrs Russell of Upwey
 [after the tune, in the staff:] 'Lazarus' in 3/4 time Words D VII. p.64
 The MIDI file has two verses, the second using the alternatives in bars 1,4,8 & 11

I am a young & undaunted youth
 My name is John M'Cann
 I am a native of Edinburgh
 And willing to trapan
 For stealing an heiress I was laid & left in gaol
 And her father said he would hang me
 For stealing Mary Neal

All in cold irons I lay bound & my love sent word to me
 Dont fear my father's anger & I will set you free
 For the ship she's now awaiting to Derry for to go
 And I'll bribe the Captain to let no one know

Then he gave consent and back she went & stole away her clothes
 And nary one that was in the house her mind she did not tell
 And her yellow locks were floating all on the waves so high
 And I'm to stand trial for stealing Mary Neal.
