

RVW2/1/240 The Irish Girl

George Goble ("Chummy"), Filby, Norfolk, October 26 1910

(Editorial suggestion) ♩ = 120

(a)

(b)

(a) var.

(b) var.

Last verse:

I wish I were a butterfly, I'd fly to my love's breast.
I wish I was a linnet, I'd sing her soul to rest.
I wish I were a nightingale, I'd sing till morning clear.
I'd sit and sing for you, Polly, for the girl that I love dear.