

RVW2/3/223 The Turtle Dove

(Phonograph)

Mr. Penfold, 2 & 4 May 1907, Rusper, Sussex

(Editorial suggestion) ♩ = 100

If I roam (a)-way I'll come back a-gain If I roam 10 thou-sand miles my dear if I roam 10 thou-sand miles. 10_
thou - sand miles it is a long way for to leave will you
ne-ver ne-ver shall If I roam that way I'll come back a-gain when all your friends get my dear when all your friends get for - tune my friends they ne - ver should get they were grow - ing so hap - py and high I ne - ver will prove false to the pret-ty girl I love till the stars fall from the sky my dear till the stars fall from the sky would ne-ver nor the rocks ne - ver melt with the sun If I walk a - way I'll come back a-gain

47
all those things be done my dear, till all those things be done

51
Yon - der do sit that lit - tle tur - tle dove, he do sit on yon - der high tree and

55
ma - king a moan for the loss of his love as I will do for you my dear as

59
I will do for you

Editorial note: The incomplete words are reproduced here exactly as given in the original MS.
The full lyrics will need to be obtained from elsewhere for performance.