

RVW2/2/40 The Farmer's Boy

Mr. Johnston (age 15), who heard it from George Sevell, Ingrave, Essex, 18 April 1904

(Editorial suggestion) ♩ = 100

The sun had set behind yon hill across the dreary moor, When weary and lame a boy there came up to a farmer's door. "Can you tell me where ever there be one that will me employ for to plough and sow, to reap and mow, and be a farmer's boy?"
