

RVW2/2/15 William and Phillis

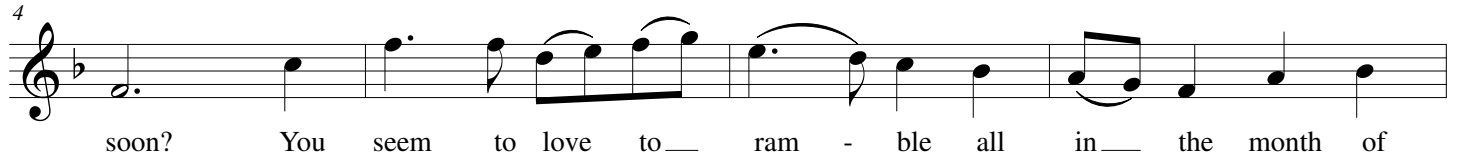

[Three men in street], London, 24 March 1904

(Editorial suggestion) ♩ = 100

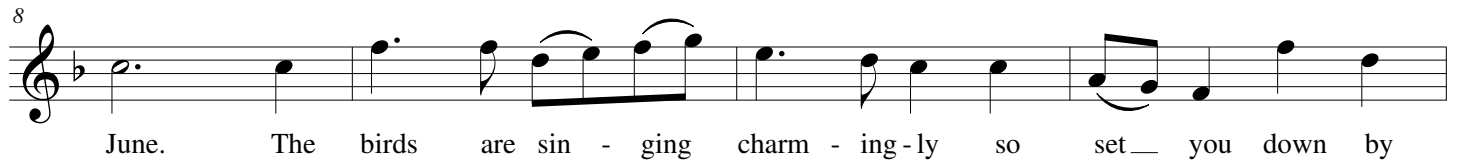

Said _____ Wil - liam to _____ young Phil - lis "How came you here so soon? You seem to love to _____ ram - ble all in _____ the month of 8

4

June. The birds are sin - ging charm - ing - ly so set _____ you down by me to _____ view the lamb - kins play - ing all a - round the green - wood (tree)."

12

RVW MS Notes: Tune and sung by three men in Barton St., Westminster, March 24th 1904.
They were walking round the streets and selling ballad sheets.
For the rest of the words see book of ballad sheets.