

The Privateer.

No. 7.

With feeling. (Capo 1.)

G(F#) Fm(Em) Eb(D) Fm(Em) G(F#) Fm(Em) C(B) Fm(Em)

1. Our boat she's on the drift.... and our ship she's un- der weigh.
 2. "There's no..... one can tell.... what great ha-..... zards you run,
 3. "Grieve not my dear- est jew-.... el, when I'm out of thy sight,
 4. "Then, since you are a- go-..... ing, may heav- en gra- cious be,

C(B) Fm(Em) Ab(G) C(B) Fm(Em)

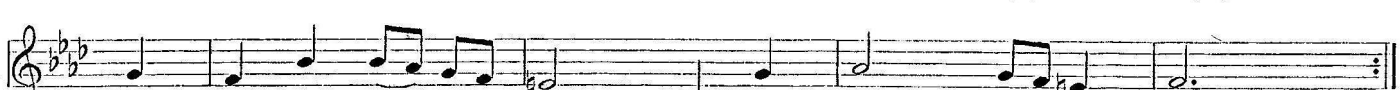

Fare- well my dear- est jew-el, for no lon- ger I can stay;
 So man- y have been slain..... since first the wars be- gun;
 For I must go on board,, and so bold- ly will I fight,
 May heav- en kind pro- tect... you by land.... or by sea;

Ab(G) C(B) Fm(Em)

Our ship she lies a wait-..... ing, so fare you well my dear,....
 Such blood-... y en- gage..... ments, and dan- gers they draw near,....
 We'll beat.... down the pride..... of the loft-.... ty 'Mon- sieur',...
 May heav- ven kind pro- tect..... you, wher- ev..... er you steer,...

Bbm(Am) C(B) Fm(Em) C(B) Fm(Em)

For I must go... on... board of this bold pri-.. va- teer.
 With the loss of their..sweet.. lives in this bold pri-.. va- teer."
 And soon we'll let.. them.. know she's a bold pri-.. va- teer."
 And send you safe...home.. back from this bold pri-.. va- teer."

5. "The prizes we have taken
 are from France and from Spain,
 And my true love at home
 shall have part of them the same.
 When the wars they are all over,
 I will turn unto my dear,
 And then I'll bid adieu
 to this bold privateer."

