Since you say so, my dearest Nancy
There is one thing more shall crown our breast
That's you & I'll be joined together
And along with you I will take my rest
Then to church they did repair
Which banished all their grief & care
Married they were together.

[on verso leaf, opposite words:]
He waved his hat, she waved her fan
Much like some goddess bright she stand
Ready for to receive him

Since You Say So, My Dearest Nancy

$\text{♩} = 100$

The musical score is written on four staves in G major (one sharp) and 5/4 time. The first staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp. The second staff continues the melody. The third staff includes a time signature change to 3/4. The fourth staff includes a time signature change to 3/4 and a section labeled 'Bar 3 & 7 seemed to be ...'. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and a repeat sign.

[the text after the tune is:] Bars 3 & 7 seemed to be in 3/2 time; the rest in 5/4 except the last two bars.
Excepting these last bars, the whole tune would go in 5/4 or 3/2 time. (H.E.D.H.)
