

RVW2/2/80 The Smuggler's Boy

John Denny, Billericay, Essex, 25 April 1904

(Editorial suggestion ♩=100)

On one cold cloudy morning alone I did steer on the 5

wide rolling ocean where it runs swift and clear. I heard some poor creature in sorrow did weep crying "O my poor father got 15

10

Refrain

lost in the deep. Some pity I crave, O give me em - ploy, for alone I must wander," cried the poor smuggler's boy.

21