

RVW2/2/45 The Three Butchers

James Punt, East Horndon, Essex, 21 April 1904

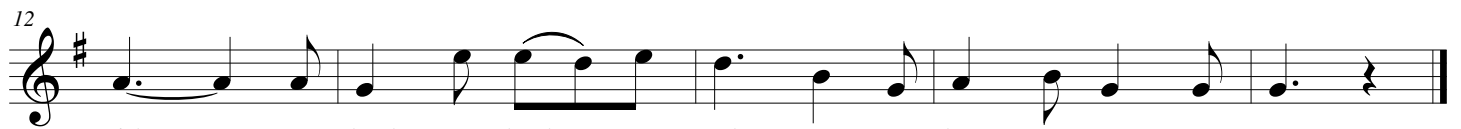

(Editorial suggestion) ♩. = 80

It was Hare, Gibbs and John-son as I have heard men say. They had five thousand gui-neas all on a mar-ket day. As they rode o-ver Nor-thum-ber-land as hard as they could ride O hark! O hark says John - son I hear a wo - man cry.

(For rest of the words see book of ballad sheets)