

BRIDGWATER FAIR

Collected and arranged by CECIL J. SHARP

Moderato

VOICE

1. All you who roam, both young and old, Come lis - ten to my lads and lass - es they come through From Stow - ey, Sto - gur - sey and Tom and Jack, they look so gay, With Sal and Kit they sto - ry bold. For miles a - round from far and near — They Can - ning - ton too. That far - mer from Fid - ding - ton, true as my life, — He's haste a - way To shout and laugh and have a spree, — And come to see the rigs o' the fair. O Mas - ter John, do you be - ware! And come to the fair to look for a wife. O Mas - ter John, do you be - ware! And dance and sing right mer - ri - ly. O Mas - ter John, do you be - ware! And

PIANO

First and second times

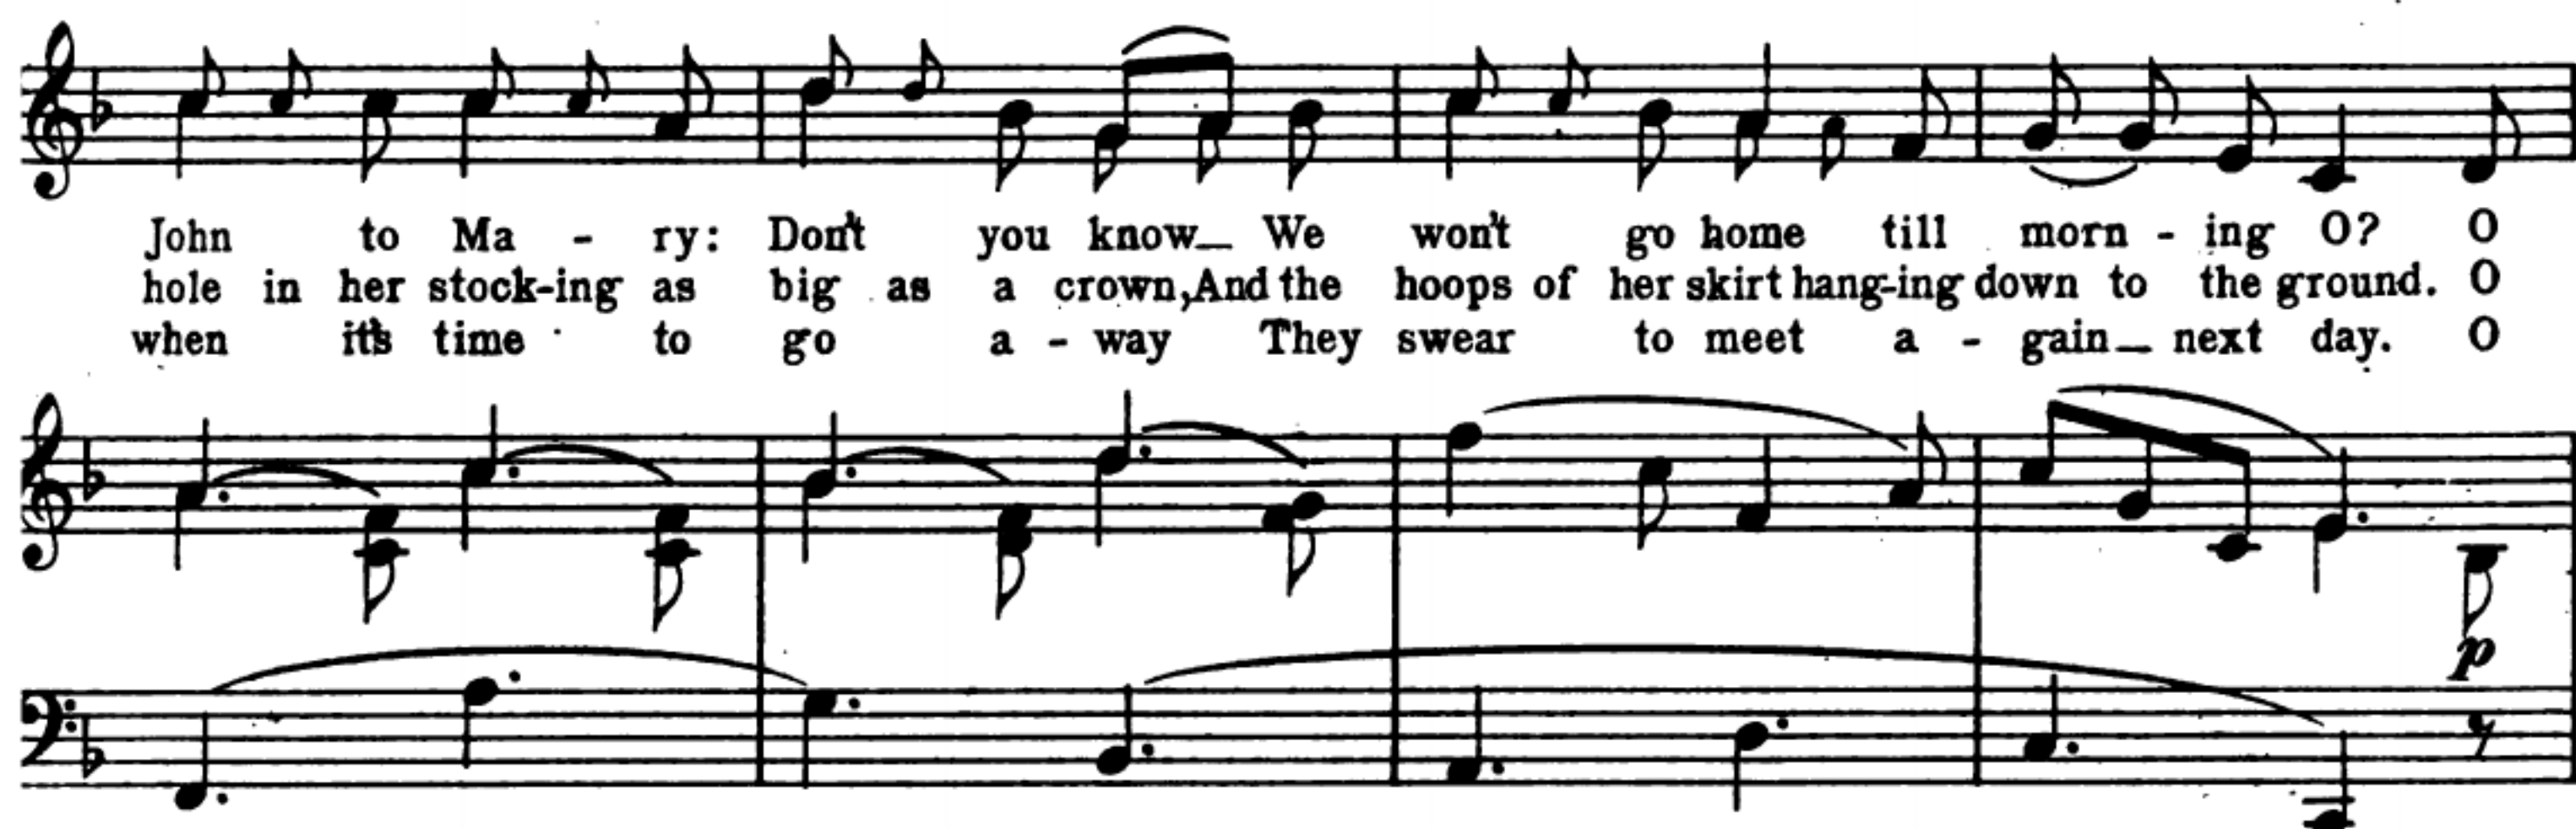

don't go kiss - ing the girls at Bridg - wa - ter fair.
 don't go kiss - ing the girls at Bridg - wa - ter fair.
 don't go kiss - ing the girls at Bridg - wa - ter fair.

2. The
 3. There's

Third time

4. The jo-vial plough-boys all se-rene, They dance the maid-ens on the green. Says car-rotty Kit so jol-ly and fat, With her girt flip-pe-ty, flop-pe-ty hat; A up with the fid-dle and off with the dance, The lads and lass-es gai-ly prance, And John to Ma-ry: Don't you know— We won't go home till morn-ing O? O hole in her stock-ing as big as a crown, And the hoops of her skirt hang-ing down to the ground. O when it's time to go a-way They swear to meet a-gain— next day. O

Mas-ter John, do you be-ware! And don't go kiss-ing the girls at Bridge-
Mas-ter John, do you be-ware! And don't go kiss-ing the girls at Bridge-
Mas-ter John, do you be-ware! And don't go kiss-ing the girls at Bridge-

First and second times

Last time

wa-ter fair.
wa-ter fair.
wa-ter fair.

5. There's
6. It's

