

RVW2/2/46 The Gallant Hussar

James Punt, East Horndon, Essex, 21 April 1904

(Editorial suggestion) ♩. = 66

A mai - den pos - sessed of great beau - ty she stood by her own fa - ther's gate.
The gal - lant hus - sars were on du - ty; to view them this dam - sel did wait.

5 Their hor - ses were ca - p'ring and pran - cing their ac - cout - re - ments shone like a star; from the 10 plains they were nea - rer ad - van - cing she es - pied her young gal - lant hus - sar.