

RVW2/1/85 The Lady Looked Out (1 of 3)

Sung by Mr. Billy Waggs at the "Red Lion," Orwell, June 13th 1908

(Editorial suggestion) ♩. = 50

The la-dy looked out of her win-dow so high to hear the proud ped-lar sing. "Sing on, sing on, you bold ped - lar, Your — song you have late - ly be - gun." — "It's me and my pack is worth twen - ty pounds in goods and good mo - ney. I — free - ly would part with it all but one groat(?) To — kiss and lay with a la - dy, To — kiss and lay with a la - dy." —
