

RVW2/2/72 Come Buy Me a Hawk and a Hound

(Sung by Mrs. H's grandfather who was 76 when he died about 1887)

From Mrs. Humphreys, Ingrave, Essex, 1903

(Editorial suggestion) ♩. = 66

Come buy me a hawk and a hound and a beau-ti-ful gil-liard to ride ____ for

5

I have been slee-ping all this night long and no-one then to lay by my side. ____

Chorus

Here's a - dieu to old Eng-land fare - well, Here's a - dieu to ten thou-sand of foes ____ If the world had been end-ed when we were all young our sor-rows ne'er should have been known.

13