

RVW2/2/61 Long Life To Young Jimmy

James Punt, East Horndon, Essex, 23 April 1904

(Editorial suggestion ♩ = 120)

The musical score is written on a single staff in treble clef, with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a 3/4 time signature. The tempo is indicated as 120 beats per minute. The lyrics are: "You have ban - ished my Jim - my right o - ver the main and I am a - fraid I shan't see him a - gain. May the hea - vens pro - tect him and keep him from harm and send back my Jim - my and send back my Jim - my to be in my arms." The score is divided into four systems, with measure numbers 1, 5, 9, and 14 marked at the beginning of each system. The melody is simple and folk-like, with a mix of quarter and eighth notes. There are some editorial markings, such as a question mark above a note in measure 6 and a bracket under a note in measure 13.
