

RVW2/2/62 Jacky Robinson

(Dancing Song)

James Punt, East Horndon, Essex, 23 April 1904

Allegro (Editorial suggestion) ♩ = 110

All the pe - rils and dan - gers of the waves is past, the ship at Ports-mouth has ar - rived at last, the sails all furled and the an - chors cast and the hap - piest of the crew is Jack - y Ro - bin - son.

Jack met with a man and said "I say, per - haps you may know one Pol - ly Gray. She's some - where here - a - bouts." The man did say, "I do not in - deed" to Jack - y Ro - bin - son.
