

LEB/2/29/9 Pretty Ploughboy

Noted by Lucy E. Broadwood

Mr. Hoare, Houghton, Sussex [1901]

(Editorial suggestion) ♩=120

'Tis of a pret - ty plough - boy stood a - gaz - ing at his team While his hor - ses, his hor - ses stood un - der-neath the shade, This wild youth goes a - whist - ling, a - whist - ling to his plough, And by chance he used to meet a pret - ty maid, pret - ty maid, And by chance he used to meet a pret - ty maid.

